

Distinguished Service Award

An SRES® Distinguished Service Award Recipient must have shown extraordinary performance and presence in their respective community; demonstrated that they are a source of knowledge and expertise in working with the senior market; and must have shown exceptional principles and furtherance of the principles of good practice among REALTORS® and the 50+ market.

SRES® Designee Armand Christopher

Armand earned his designation in 2002. His dedicated service and tenure with the SRES council earned him a spot on the SRES Advisory Board since 2007. Colleagues continue to recognize Armand as “a tireless voice in helping to raise service standards in the area of Senior Home Transition services.” It is this dedication to the industry as a whole that made Armand a clear candidate for the Distinguished Service Award. Armand also serves as a vice president for the City of Dallas “Friends of Senior Affairs, and serves on the board of Denton County Geriatric Services coalition.

Armand recently presented a workshop titled, “To Become Elder Friendly & Senior Ready: How to Engage Your City Leaders” for the Texas Conference on Aging and is recognized by The Dallas Morning News as a top Senior Real Estate Specialist in the Dallas area. As a founding member of the “Ebby Lifestyle Transition Program,” Armand manages education, training and marketing for over 120 SRES designees with Ebby Halliday Realtors. The list of accomplishments and organizations that Armand collaborates with continues on, highlighting his advocacy for the senior population. His efforts propel the ongoing development and recognition of the SRES Designation in both his own market and on a national level.
